PROJECTS AWAIT OK BY STATE

Seek Vote On Charity Drives Here

Would you favor the "combined appeal" — once a year campaign approach to raise the necessary funds for some 15 worthy organizations in the health and welfare field who are now actively soliciting in Antioch?

Would you be willing to make one lump sum cash or pledge gift to one appeal that would be 15 times greater than that of each individual contribution you are now making to 15 different organizations all through out the year — If, you had the assurance that you would not be called upon by any one of these agencies again for at least 12 months?

Or, do you favor the individual campaigns which might bring in more money some years depending on public zeal and campaign strength and which does a better job of informing the public of the problems and needs of an individual agency?

These are the pros and cons now being weighed by a group of interested people in Antioch. The national trend favors the combined appeal. It is streamlined and convenient. It usually covers the needs of the participating agencies, does not prevent people from designating their funds to their "pet" charities and eliminates the irritation of the continuous appeal for the cause and that cause time after time.

In a recent survey, it was determined that there are approximately 25 organizations soliciting contributions of all types at least once a year in Antioch. Of these, 15 are located outside the area and monies collected go away to be parceled back when the need arises. These agencies raised an estimated $8,000 last year in 15 separate drives ranging from door to door to containers in retail outlets to tag days to direct mail appeals. The Heart Fund, Red Cross, Cancer Crusade, March of Dimes, Cerebral Palsy and others are examples which could be included in a combined appeal if the public wants it.

What do you think?
Your honest opinion is essential if further discussion is to continue. Write care The Antioch News, 928 Main St., Antioch, Illinois.

Mayor Departs Village in Face of Mounting Fracas

Mayor Murrill Cunningham, veteran of Village political wars since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, has met his master. He has had it.

After consenting to pose for photographs with the leader of a rival faction in preparation of Saturday night's joust at the high school, Mayor Cunningham hastily departed for home, completed arrangements for his own welfare, and quietly sped out of town early Wednesday. He is expected to remain away until the air clears.

He expects to spend a month in Florida recuperating from the wear of pushing through a $625,000 city improvement referendum. Rumor has it that the mayor felt unequal to the task of managing the bounding, balding businessmen when they take on the high school faculty, currently risking life and limb as they seek to recapture long-gone zeal in secret practice sessions this week.

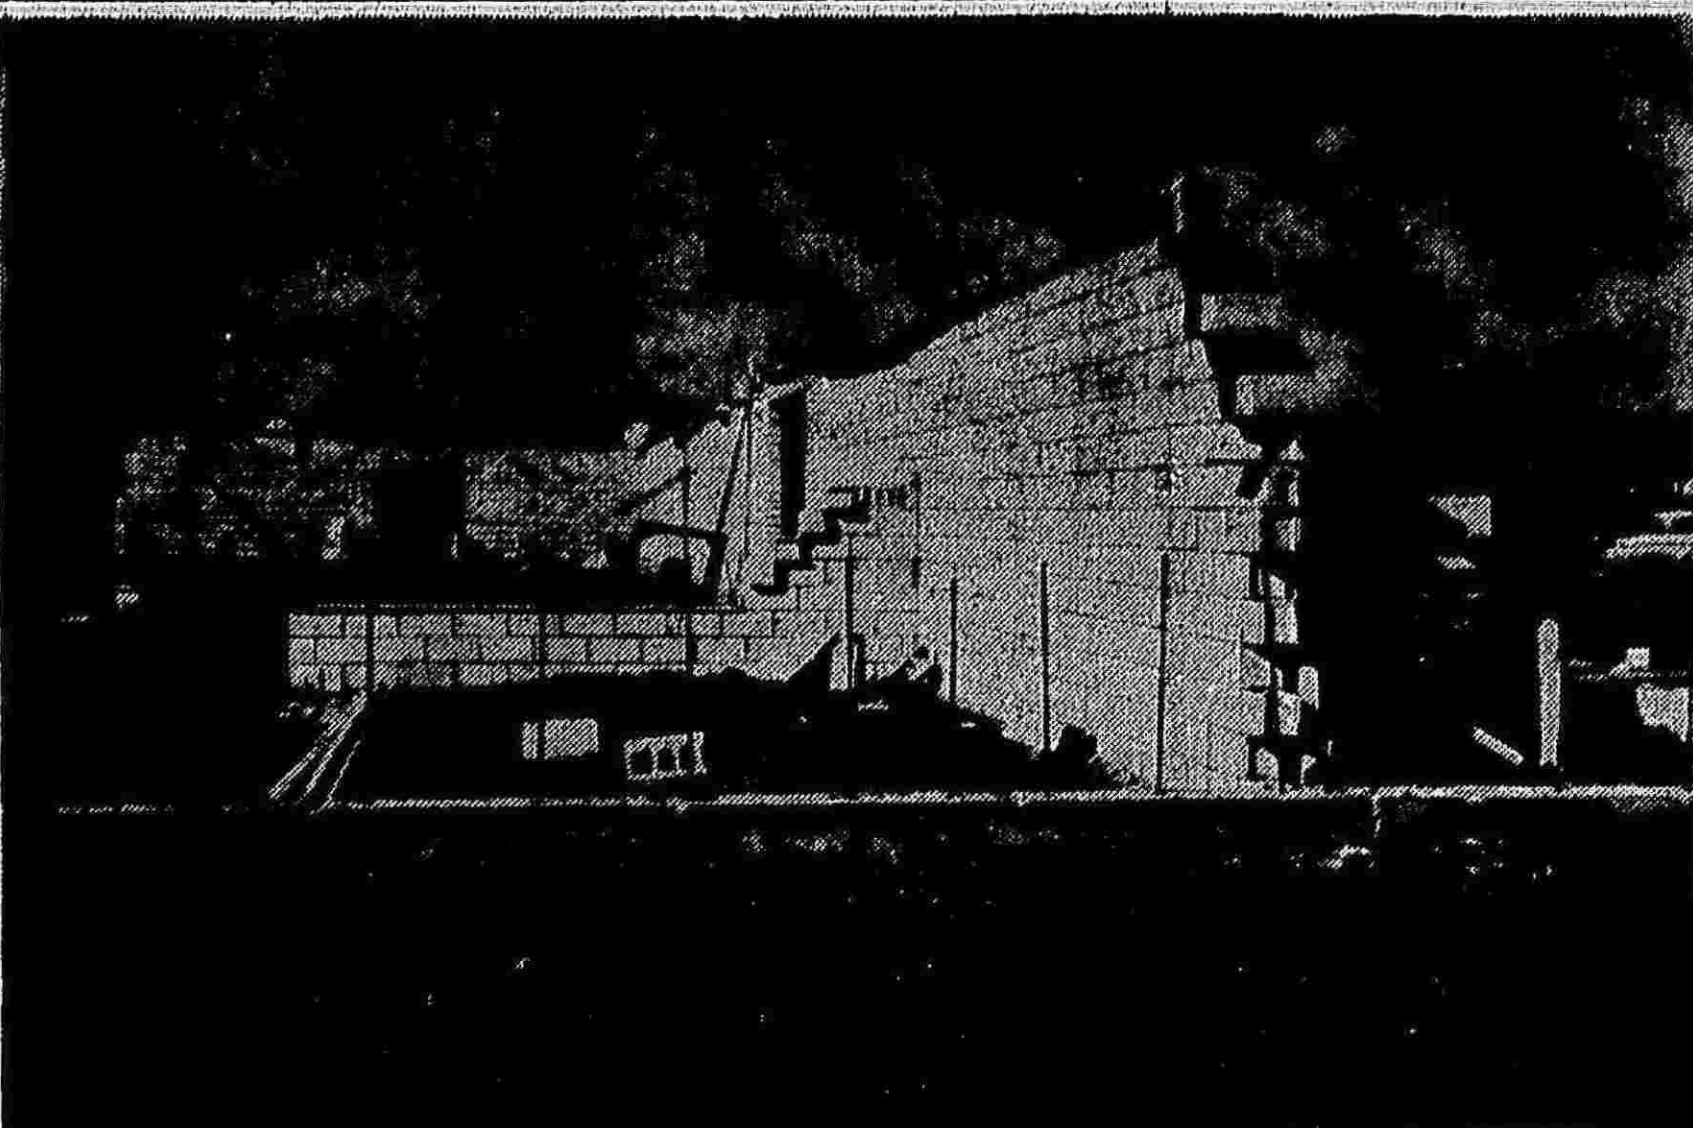

A. L. Dittman, high school principal and leader of the faculty squad, is confident of victory. If he could be persuaded to suit up the issue would never be in doubt.

Occasion will be a benefit basketball game and a style show to be staged Saturday night at Antioch Township High School to raise funds to purchase a whirlpool for the school's athletic department.

Curtain raiser at 7 p.m. will be a basketball game between the Lake Villa Grade School team and a team made up of players from the Prince of Peace and St. Peter's grade schools.

Between games Coach Bob Walther's wrestling squad will perform. This is intended to rouse the audience to fever pitch for the appearance of the faculty Gamecocks and the Village Cast-Offs.

Previous encounters between these two squads have been marred by such incidents as release of a greas-

ASSISTED by favorable weather, construction moved ahead on the Quaker Stretcher Co. 152,000 square-foot plant east of the Soo Line tracks in south Antioch. While masons laidup concrete block walls to ceiling height on the southeast portion of the plant earlier this week, the first shipment of structural steel was received in preparation for erecting the building framework. Timber framework for the 25,000 square-foot warehouse on the west edge of the 20-acre site is now in place. Arnold M. May Builders, Inc., Richmond, expects to have the plant ready for occupancy by July 1.

Township Candidates Invited To Appear Here

Local Republicans will have an opportunity to meet Township candidates next Wednesday at a joint meeting of the Antioch Township Men's Club and Women's Auxiliary.

The two groups have invited candidates to appear at the meeting at 8 p.m. in the American Legion Hall, Antioch.

Seek Re-election

William Brook and Roger Prosser, incumbents, have filed petitions for re-election to the Board of Education, District 117.

The election will be held April 8. Deadline for filing is March 18; March 21 is the deadline for withdrawal.

You may sign your name if you wish and your comments are welcome. If you care to participate in the deliberations, please signify this.

All ballots and correspondence should be directed to the Antioch News, 928 Main Street, Antioch, Ill.

School Program Reaps Dividends

What Are We Doing for Our Exceptional Youth?

Ever wonder about the child who repeats a grade more than once, who just can't seem to "get it" and about whom the other youngsters sometimes talk and then, twirl their forefinger around temple in the age-old "he's barmy" sign... the child who is still speaking a sort of baby talk in advanced grades of elementary school... the one who wears braces, elevated shoes, or has a rounded back or other physical handicap which prevents him from joining in those games which are so much a part of growing up... the little girl who always gets the best grades and is so "goody goody" that her classmates don't quite trust her and who is always running to the teacher to tattle... or the "bully" who pushes the other boys around and who scoffs at rules as made for others, not for him... the chronic truant... the child who always complains of feeling sick... the nervous youngster whose day dreams are more important than joining with the others in games.

What is being done for these youngsters who are physically handicapped, mentally retarded, or who have emotional problems that set them apart from the other children?

Do they try school, only to drop far behind and then quit all together? Do some become local "characters"... others maladjusted adults... are they consigned to vegetate at home unable to join in a normal life and to be active members of society?

What about these children who are "different"?

To find out what is being done to educate exceptional children in local schools, The Antioch News, with the cooperation of the Special Education District of Lake County visited special education classes, observed instruction and watched the exceptional child at work and play.

(First in a Series)
By Harvey L. Patton

The formation last September of the Special Education District of Lake County marks the first County-wide approach to education of exceptional children within the framework of standard schools.

Formation of the district is the outgrowth of efforts by parents and educators to bring within reach of handicapped children an education plan to meet their peculiar needs.

Its basic aim — to develop within each child the behaviors and skills necessary to the performance of the necessary life functions of good citizenship; the ability to communicate with others, the ability to establish a home and family, the proper use of leisure time, the ability to manage materials and money, occupational adequacy, optimum physical and mental health, the making of adequate social adjustments, and the knowledge to travel safely and intelligently from one place to another.

Normal school life will do the above for the average child.

But what of the exceptional child? Depending upon the handicap, optimum goal may, of necessity, be limited to that of training a child to walk across the street safely, to converse intelligibly, to open a can of food, to sweep a floor. To accomplish even this may take months and even years under skilled instructors.

Yet, no matter the handicap, Lake County's special education district, has, or expects to have, the capacity to instruct such children.

The County district is responsible for:

- 1—Retarded children who are
- (a) Educable mentally handicapped (continued on page 7)

Artists Exhibit Work

Antioch artists George Grunow and Jacqueline Horton will present a dual showing of their work at the Karcher Hotel, in Waukegan Saturday through March 25. Both artists will be on hand from 7-10 p.m. Saturday to greet viewers.

$600,000 in City Work Approved by 5-1 Vote

Work on $600,000 in water and sewer construction projects, approved in referendum Saturday, will proceed as soon as state approval of village plans is received.

This was the word today from village officials who reported that plans and specifications have been in Springfield for more than six weeks.

In a light vote, village residents approved the issue by an approximate 5-1 ratio. The Antioch vote was 290 in favor of the proposal, 65 opposed, and six spoiled ballots. The 361 ballots were cast out of a potential 1,100.

Also awaited was approval of Antioch's request for $65,000 in federal aid to construct an addition to the sewage treatment plant.

Although Saturday's referendum approved the $365,000 general obligation bonds, approval of the $65,000 in federal aid would reduce this figure to $260,000. However by law the higher figure must be voted.

With federal aid, the program would cost taxpayers some 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation; without federal aid approximately 25 cents per $100.

Under the proposal, $325,000 general obligation bonds would be used to finance construction of: enlargement of the sewage treatment plant; trunk relief sewer to treatment plant; lift station for Depot and Anita Sts.; replacement of sewer on Spafford, Victoria and Main Sts.; engineering and contingencies.

Revenue bonds in the amount of $275,000 would finance: sanitary sewers in Oakwood Knolls; 10" water main along Anita St. to North Ave.; 10" water main in Depot St.; engineering and contingencies.

Contract for the sale of the bonds, both general obligation and revenue, was awarded last month to the firms of Benjamin & Lang and the M. B. Vick Co., low joint bidders. The contract rate is 3.95 percent on general obligation bonds and 4.47 percent on revenue bonds.

Saturday's vote marked the second referendum to be approved recently by local voters. On Feb. 11, voters of District 117 passed $985,000 to finance construction and other work on the Antioch Township High School.

School Bond Bid Opening Set March 15

Bids for $995,000 in bonds to finance construction at Antioch Township High School, will be opened at the Board's next meeting, March 15, it was announced today.

Requests for bids were sent out by the Board following the February meeting.

According to school officials, a favorable rate can be expected, with a resulting savings to District 117 taxpayers.

When financing has been decided, plans for the two-story addition are expected to shift into high gear. As approved by district voters Feb. 11 by a 612-513 vote, the proposal will include: construction of a new school unit to accommodate 400 additional students, located in front of the present school plant; enlargement of present athletic facilities and laboratory areas; and necessary renovation to existing facilities.

$7,000 Fire Damage In Grass Lake Home

A closet fire did an estimated $7,000 in damages to the Clyde Queen residence on Drexel Blvd., Grass Lake, last week. The fire was discovered at 8:30 p.m. in a closet off the bathroom. Antioch's fire department confined the blaze. Major damage, according to Chief Edger Simonsen, was done by smoke.

The department was called out a second time to extinguish a grass blaze Tuesday on the Walker Curran property east of the Soo Line tracks.

Trevor Woman Injured When Car Rolls Over

TREVOR, Wis. — A Trevor woman, Betty Kern, 49, was injured last week when her car missed a curve on County Trunk W and rolled over. She was taken to Burlington Memorial Hospital for treatment.

She told deputies she was headed south toward Silver Lake and didn't see the curve. Her car was a total wreck.

School Project

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell
CHANNEL LAKE — The Board of Education plans on bid openings next month on the proposed $60,000 Channel Lake school addition with construction slated to start in early summer. Preliminary action was taken and plans for the new gymnasium discussed at the board's meeting here last week.

Salem to Caucus Voters; Pad. Lake Creates Law Post

SALEM, Wis. — A caucus will be held at Central High School at 1:30 p.m. Saturday to select candidates for village office in April elections.

In announcing the caucus, Village President Eugene T. Doyle urged a capacity turnout of voters to aid in selecting qualified candidates.

In other action, the Village Board of Paddock Lake abolished the office of constable and village marshal, and created the position of chief of police. The action was done by charter ordinance.

Village President Gene Doyle explained the action as necessary for control of police work in the village. In creating the office of police chief, the board has brought the law of office directly under its control and can hold him accountable for performance of duties. This could not be done under the former set-up, he explained.

Doyle said that applicants for the new post may apply between 7-9 p.m. Monday, March 6, at the village office. Applicants must be between the ages of 30 and 60 years, he said.

Chartered By State

The Antioch Oil Men's Club, a not-for-profit corporation has been issued a charter by the state, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier announced today.

Principals in the organization are Russell V. Rendell, Wilbert V. Lahti, Dudley Kennedy and Ronald Gaa.

The corporation, headquartered at 912 Broadway, has been organized for the purpose of improving fellowship of dealers, jointly learning more of the industry, and improved customer service.

Horton Enters Race

Herbert Horton, independent, beat the deadline Monday by filing for police magistrate. Horton joins other independents seeking village office. They are Raymond Toft, trustee, and E. Elmer Brook, incumbent, police magistrate.

Other candidates are: Peoples Party — Murrill Cunningham, mayor; Clarence Shultz, clerk; Richard Folbrink, police magistrate; Ernest H. Glen, John Blackman and H. Roger Williams for trustees.

Stop Pressing The Panic Button

Has the administration created an economic panic where no reason for panic exists?

Speculation along these lines is gaining ground.

The President's efforts, commendable in themselves, have been placed in operation in a thoughtless fashion.

Efforts to publicize unemployment aid and the realities of the recession have helped deepen the likelihood of greater recession because when confronted by the threat of a fiscal pinch, people tighten up and save. And that means less buying.

When people save too closely, be it on an individual or corporate level, production ultimately suffers. Production drops and jobs decline.

A recent report from one newly-designated depressed area on the West Coast has been cited as evidence that the theory of crying "tough times" is operating to our economic disadvantage. The area, according to the reporting magazine, is that of Long Beach and Los Angeles, a region highly dependent upon defense contracts, construction and transient labor.

Since the new administration began its well-publicized reforms, buying has plummeted there. Yet, the report stresses that money is there. But it's being "hoarded" through fear.

Most certainly there is an undeniable decline in jobs in some areas, particularly where major car manufacturers have laid off thousands. Steel is likewise down.

Yet, banks and savings institutions report assets and savings at an all-time peak. And there seems to be no major tightening of credit.

Particularly frightening to some are televised reports of such officials as Secretary of Labor Goldberg interviewing the unemployed in lines at employment offices. To a man unemployed, the recession is not coming, it's here. He's down and the tenor of his thinking is in the same vein.

Sec. Goldberg voiced nothing but pessimism in his quick swing around through the midwest last month. Reports indicated that he sought the bleakest of spots to do his checking - which is part of his job in keeping his finger on the pulse of business and labor.

But there are bright spots and there is encouragement - and these bright aspects and encouraging factors exist, in many cases, in the same areas that are being labelled as depressed.

And it's Mr. Goldberg's job to seek them out. They should serve as a leavening factor in any over-all outlook, in no way minimizing the assistance that must be given those elements and individuals in need of assistance.

So, please lay off the panic button. Give us some of the good as well as the bad and don't try to drive us to the New Frontier. We'll make it and in good time.

Enough Is Enough

The heights to which some political master-minds will go, particularly in their endeavors to part the average docile taxpayer from his hard-earned coin of the realm, is unmatched by the latest dispatch to our attention concerning the latest chicanery of one Bruce D. Pomeroy, alderman of Minneapolis.

Alderman Pomeroy has gone deep into left field to come up with a new one. He proposes to wring another $8,500,000 annually from suffering Minneapolisians by imposing a $12 tax on each but the first toilet in every home, office and factory in that fair city.

On first glance, this seems innocuous enough because it is our considered opinion that any homeowner with two must have sufficient wherewithal to cover the extra tax bite. But think again, comrades. If they can tax the second, they can tax the first as well, and that's where it will hurt.

However, such a plan, far-reaching in its implications, does not close all avenues, for who among us does not recall that old favorite sung to the tune of "Shanty in Old Shanty Town":

"It's only a shanty that stands in the rear - Of our home in the country we all love so dear, etc."

And the memory of Chick Sale, that lovable movie comedian of days gone by, needs but a spark to flame again.

And should Alderman Pomeroy's brainstorm reach to the environs of Lake County to force a rebirth of those huts with their half-mooned doors, he will have paved the way for young entrepreneurs.

We used to tip over an average of 15 on a good Hallo'ween night... and set them up again the next morn at one dollar per.

Inflation being what it is, the going rate should now be at least a fin.

Whatever happened to the Chamber of Commerce in Antioch? Word has it that no one seems willing to take hold of the organization and boom it ahead - and from our observation, the town with an active Chamber (or Junior Chamber) is usually an active, bustling, interesting place.

Seems to me, that in letting the Chamber and what it stands for lay dormant, local businessmen are abdicating one responsibility of community progress.

Homeowners in Wedgewood Subdivision on east Loon Lake are currently on the receiving end of congratulations. Seems the 15-odd property owners in the area, proud of their homes and surroundings, took it upon themselves to contract for an attractive entranceway to their area.

The cost - $500, shared by each, for a pillared entrance of stone, complete with automatic gate lamps, off Deep Lake Road.

Those administration promises to speed up refunds on income tax are fact, all fact. We submitted ours Jan. 15 and received the refund last week. According to the administration, tax refunds, when warranted, will be made as quickly as possible to put more money back into hands of the taxpayers so they can spend... and that's just what we did.

G. Mennon "Soapy" Williams, Michigan's gift to the national political scene and the darling of the square dance and bow tie sets, is at it again. "Soapy", you see, has a penchant for saying the wrong thing at the right time, and he isn't at all bashful about saying it in tones loud and clear.

The ex-governor's latest is his crack about "Africa for Africans" which has raised the hackles of the white element in Africa and seems to us to resemble the cries of certain of our worthy opponents in the cold war.

And if that isn't enough, "Soapy" has proclaimed that we're not in the market for a second "feudal barbarian-type rule" in certain of the dark continent... leaving unsaid that the first rule was of that type. And, of course, Belgium, England and France, our closest allies, were the first rulers. They are not taking kindly to all this even though "Soapy" has denied ever casting any aspersions in the matter.

It will be remembered that this is the same "Soapy" who led Michigan through some 16 years of fiscal irresponsibility which reached its zenith last year when the state, through some various feats of magic, managed to skimp enough together to meet the state payroll.

Yes, this is the same "Soapy" who was appointed earlier this year as Ambassador of African Affairs, or some such.

Doubtless "Soapy" was glad enough to get off the hook in Michigan through his appointment, and President Kennedy, in appointing this gadfly, was able to silence a possible political enemy who was more than somewhat disenchanted at the nomination of Kennedy by the Democrats.

For you see, "Soapy" had his own ideas about the nomination. The new president has made some fine and interesting appointments. But why he should appoint this loose-lipped professional to an area which he describes as the most explosive on the face of the globe today is beyond our ken.

Better, he should send "Soapy" packing to lower Slobbovia where he can harm none but Slobbovians.

Scale Model Spurs Drive For Hospital

LAKE VILLA — An added boost to the Countryside Hospital drive was given here last week with unveiling of a portable scale model of the proposed structure.

Weighing 180 pounds, the model is authentic in topographical features at one-third scale, and portrays approximately one-third of the site including building and parking lots.

The display, currently at the Ringa Funeral Home, Lake Villa, is available for display on request. It is of knockdown construction and easily transportable.

In announcing availability of the display, Countryside backers revealed that organizations desiring loan of the model, should contact the funeral home for free dates.

Requestors may transport the display where desired, or, lacking the means, the Ringa organization will provide delivery.

Introduction of the mock-up is intended to spur interest in the hospital in the form of contributions throughout the area.

In its most recent action, Countryside hospital directors and guests recently attended a special meeting in Romani's Restaurant in Ingleside, where they heard Dr. Karl Klecka discuss aspects of hospital planning.

Dr. Klecka, executive director of Hospital Planning Council for Metropolitan Chicago, discussed planning, construction, staffing, and concluded the evening with a question-answer period. His organization is non-profit and devoted to research into methods for achieving adequate hospital care in various areas.

Treasurer Bert Hooper reported a net current treasury of $11,803. Estimated cost of the hospital is $1,100,000.

Attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. E. Rundgren, Mr. and Mrs. W. Thorson, Mrs. R. DelFalso, Mr. and Mrs. E. Olson, J. Scribbs (architect), Mrs. J. Ulrey, G. Heuer, B. Hooper, R. Klaus, E. Smag, R. J. Ringa, H. Jones, G. Walasek and W. Lyman.

MOOSE TOPICS

Fifty-five members attended the recent meeting of Antioch Chapter 735, Women of the Moose, in Moose Hall.

Star Recorders were in charge of the chapter night program, with Mrs. Una Fox as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Mae Palmer and Arlene Horton. Guest speaker was Stella Bortman of the Cicero Chapter. She is past president of the College Regents. She was accompanied by Alma Harris.

Honored in the birthday march were Mrs. Harriet Grewe, Mrs. Jan Rhode, Mrs. Blanch Horton, Mrs. Jane Meyers and Mrs. Flossie Keefe.

Another WOM events, the Membership Committee met at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mildred Gillum; the Academy of Friendship met at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Regina Karrasch; and all WOM members will meet tonight at the Moose Hall for Moose-haven Committee Chapter night.

SIDELIGHTS from SPRINGFIELD

By Rep. PAUL SIMON

When you go to the polls in November of next year, the chances are good that you will vote on at least one constitutional amendment — possibly the full limit of three changes.

No more than three changes to the Constitution can be voted on at any election.

At this early stage in the legislative session, it looks as if one or more of these four may make it:

1 — A revenue amendment, which would give the state greater flexibility in getting its money. Much of the unfairness of our present tax structure is due to the out-dated revenue article in the present constitution. The result has been a heavy burden on the property tax and the sales tax.

2 — A judicial amendment, which would permit greater flexibility and efficiency in the operation of our courts. The big fight on this one will be how you select the judges; that fight may well kill any chances it has of getting on the ballot. About one-third of the members of the legislature are lawyers — and there are almost as many ideas on selecting the judges as there are lawyers in the General Assembly.

3 — An amendment to permit sheriffs and county treasurers to succeed themselves. This has been defeated twice; it may be presented again, but with just one of the two offices included, in the hope that it would be acceptable, one step at a time.

4 — An amendment to permit 18-year-olds to vote. Rep. Ed Schaefer of Nokomis is the chief sponsor of the proposal. This time. Each year this measure gathers a few more votes and one of these years it will be on the ballot. The odds are against it happening this session, but it might just break through this time.

The session in Springfield is barely underway, so that picture could change considerably in the coming months, but that's the way it looks right now.

Constitutional amendments need voter approval for any change.

To get on the ballot in November of next year, an amendment needs the favorable vote of two-thirds of the House and Senate. That isn't easy to achieve; most proposals are killed because of this requirement.

There will also be a resolution for a constitutional convention, to completely redraft our state's basic document. If past experience is a key to the future, that proposal will be overwhelmingly defeated.

The reason you vote so frequently on changes in our state constitution is that Illinois — like most states — has a constitution with a great many needless details in it. Most of these details made sense when they were originally put there in 1870, but in 1961 some of these details are ridiculous.

A minor example is that the constitution establishes that a legislator may receive his salary and mileage "and no other allowance or emolument, directly or indirectly, for any purpose whatever, except the sum of $50 per session to each member, which shall be in full for postage, stationery, newspaper and all other incidental expenses and prerequisites." These other "incidental expenses and prerequisites" include stenographic help at your place of residence and hotel expenses.

In 1870 this kind of a restriction made sense. Today the postage alone far exceeds the $50 which the constitution allows for all expenses.

That particular provision does not hamper the efficient operation of government, but it illustrates how provisions in an 1870 constitution can become outdated — and why you'll probably be voting for some constitutional changes in November of 1962.

Allendale Director Bares Plans For Boost In Service To Boys

LAKE VILLA — Clare Appleby, director of Allendale School for Boys, presented plans for long range improvements in program, staff and physical plant facilities for the school in a major address to the annual meeting of the Allendale Association in Chicago recently.

Appleby, has been in charge of Allendale since 1951 and has brought the institution to major prominence as one of the leading child care agencies in the greater Chicago metropolitan area.

"There will be no diminution of the numbers of boys needing the kind of help that Allendale can give," he told the association. "Particularly in the area we serve, there is a population increase such that of the newcomers there is a larger percentage of people likely to need help. Our purpose needs no revision in spite of the fact that we will be able to meet only a small percentage of this need. However, with in that statement of purpose, there is a definite need to be more precise, since many applicants who fulfill the definition cannot be admitted."

He said that applications average approximately 300 per year for between 12 and 20 openings.

"Most of these boys who will seek admission, almost all of them, will be behind the grades normal for their age, and the possibility of their being helped in the public school systems still remains extremely remote," he pointed out.

"We shall, therefore, through the work of our program committee, try to make more precise the requirements for admission and these will include the ability of a boy to be helped by our school. In the school itself, I think that by one means or

Restocked Rock Lake Off-Limits

Rock Lake will be closed to fishermen until May 1, Wisconsin conservation officials have announced.

The action was taken following recent restocking of the lake with some 150 pounds of rainbow trout. Restocking of the lake, located northwest of Antioch, was done with fish from the Nevin State Hatchery near Madison.

District Fish Manager Fritz Paulin said that fishing for all species at Rock Lake was ended until May 1 to protect the known large trout population.

Prior to reopening the season and after a second planting of rainbows, a survey will be made to determine survival ratios, he said.

Instruction in Pistol Shooting Starts Mar. 8

The Waukegan Lakers Rifle and Pistol Club has announced a series of free instruction in pistol shooting and related subjects, open to the public. Registration for these classes was held from 7 to 9 p.m. yesterday, March 1, at 124 S. Utica St., Waukegan. Instruction will begin next Wednesday.

Raymond Scoles and John Hoff of the Waukegan Police Department are the two instructors in charge; they have been qualified as instructors through the NRA.

Those wishing further information may contact Dr. Vern Hall, in Waukegan, at Delta 4-4482.

another, we must strive constantly to do a better job. The demand for unskilled labor is rapidly diminishing in our country and the importance of educating our young citizens to a higher degree is becoming correspondingly greater," he concluded.

The school was founded in 1890.

Your State Senator Reports

A question on the lips of many new members of the Illinois General Assembly is "What is a lobbyist?" A lobbyist is defined generally in "An Act to Regulate Lobbyists" as a person employed to promote or oppose the passage of legislation. This Act requires each lobbyist to reveal the organization which he represents, to furnish a recent photograph and to pay a $5 registration fee to the Secretary of State. In turn, the secretary furnishes each registered lobbyist with an identification card which, presumably, entitles the holder to lobby to his heart's content.

To the uninformed, the word "lobbyist" denotes an evil and corrupt "fixer" who buys the votes of members of legislature. Informed persons, including the Senators and Representatives themselves, know that lobbyists are honorable individuals employed by organizations and groups to advise relative to legislative proposals, & to work with legislative bodies. Frequently, these lobbyists carry titles, such as "legislative advisor" or "legislative counselor". In each instance, they are paid for watching, advising and influencing legislative measures pending before the Illinois General Assembly.

Lobbyists are usually men — and women — of the highest character, who possess a profound knowledge of our state government and state laws. The most powerful lobbyists represent taxpayer organizations, business associations and labor unions. Other lobbyists appear for the teachers, firemen, policemen, banks, railroads, insurance companies, municipalities, and many other groups. Today, there are more than 200 lobbyists registered under the act, which means there are about as many lobbyists as there are legislators.

Lobbyists have one primary aim — to influence legislation. They oppose bills which might affect adversely the interests they represent. Conversely, they support bills beneficial to their clients. An intelligent legislator will listen attentively to a lobbyist's advice, knowing that the lobbyist will present accurate facts and an enlightening point of view.

The lobby law affects every organization which "employs any person to promote or oppose the passage of legislation". The law was never intended to affect persons who volunteer as witnesses before legislative committees, or other persons who interest themselves in legislation having no connection with their employment.

The act to regulate lobbyists has been helpful to members of the legislature in that lobbyists are clearly identified as to the organizations and interests represented. Legislators may know exactly with whom they are speaking and the particular interests which the lobbyists are being paid to promote.

Without these professional lobbyists, our legislators would lack much of the helpful information, which now reaches them through these individuals. Lobbying serves a useful and desirable purpose in the legislative process and is definitely an institution which is here to stay.

Tax Tips Outlined by District Director on Interest, 'Expenses'

Income which you received or which was credited to your account during 1960 must be reported on your Federal income tax return, Harold R. All, Director of Internal Revenue for the Chicago District, said today.

He explained: "Interest on state and municipal obligations is wholly exempt from tax, and interest on obligations of the Federal Government issued before March 1, 1941 is either wholly or partially exempt from tax. All other interest is taxable.

"Interest which is taxable includes interest on savings or other bank deposits, interest on bonds, debentures, notes, loans, mortgages, interest on refunds of Federal taxes, interest on U. S. Savings Bonds, and interest on GI insurance dividends left on deposit with Veterans Administration.

"Also included as interest income are certain so-called dividends you receive on deposits or on withdrawable or share accounts of domestic building and loan associations, domestic savings and loan associations, credit unions, mutual savings banks and cooperative banks.

"Interest on savings and deposit accounts is considered received by you when it is credited to your account and subject to your withdrawal even though it is not entered in your passbook."

All also set for the IRS position as to the deductibility of expenses incurred by individuals in taking advantage of services offered by hotels and health spas which feature "health-restoring" facilities.

He said his attention has been directed to articles appearing in newspapers recently to the effect that a "tired businessman" may deduct expenses incurred during a visit to a health spa, provided his doctor prescribes the visit.

All explained that when travel is undertaken merely for the general improvement of a taxpayer's health, whether or not on a doctor's prescription, neither the cost of transportation nor the cost of meals and lodging is deductible for Federal income tax purposes.

Other stories refer to certain advertising for tours described as professional seminars held at luxury resort areas and at places outside the United States.

Prospectuses and programs of some of these proposed seminars raise substantial questions as to whether the activities described are directly related to the taxpayer's trade or profession.

"To be tax deductible, expenditures must be ordinary and necessary to the taxpayer's business. A number of Internal Revenue rulings and court decisions have served to define rather closely the acceptable standards for such deductions," All stated.

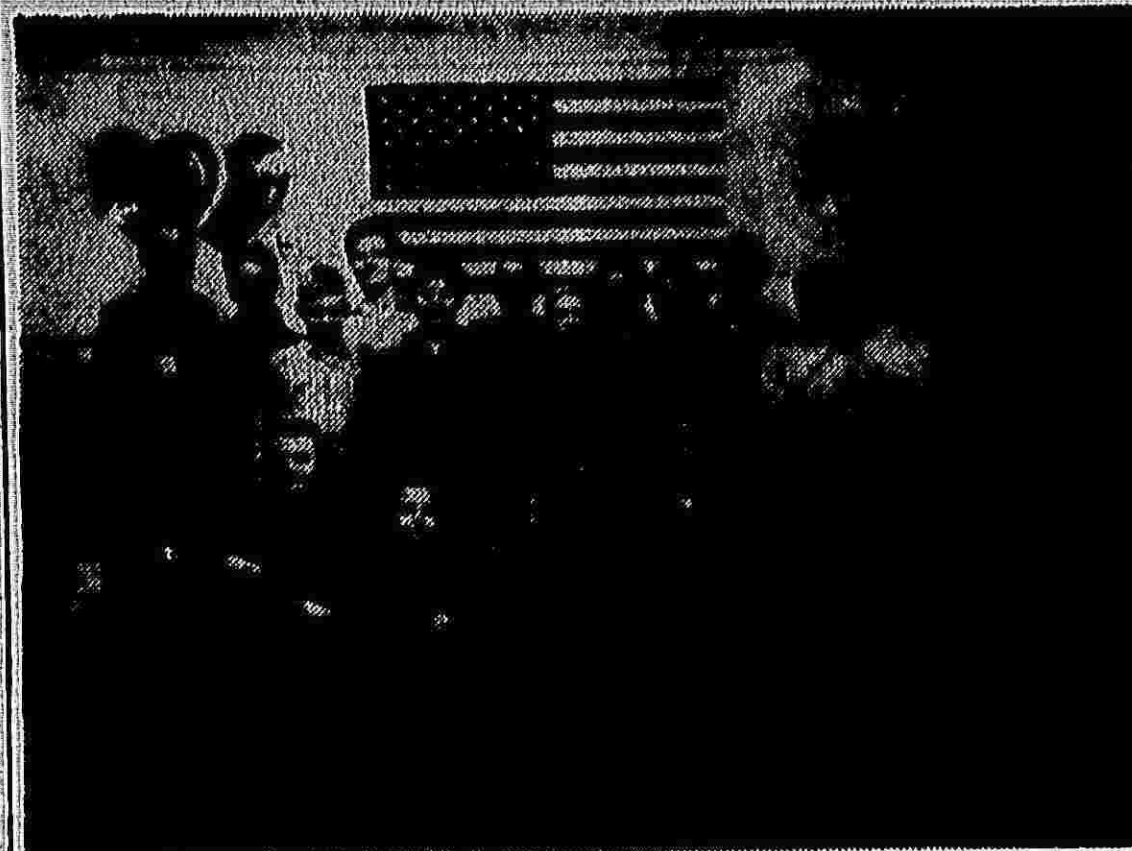

"In examining a return, the Internal Revenue Agent will, of course, consider the particular circumstances of a claimed deductible expense," he said.

Our Exceptional Children

1—Speech correction.

2—Homebound instruction by tutor or telephone and tutor.

3—The county system also includes special transportation for exceptional children, social workers, psychological evaluation and the necessary staff and instructors under a director.

4—This special program now services 31 grade school and 6 high school districts including Antioch, Grass Lake and Lake Villa. Total student enrollment numbers 1,063.

5—Classes are being conducted in Trainable Mentally Handicapped, 10 students each in classes at Adler Park and Lindberg schools; Educable Mentally Handicapped, 15 students at Woodland school; partially sighted, 10 students; physically handicapped, 8 students; Waukegan; homebound number of students varies; speech correction programs, approximately 1,000 students, hard of hearing classes, 5 students, Woodland.

In addition, a developmental program for children not in public school programs is conducted on Saturday mornings in the Woodland school, in conjunction with the United Cerebral Palsy Foundation of Chicago.

The Special Education Program is financed by participating school districts on the basis of $1 for each student in the district. Student population in the Special Education District now totals 20,760 students, or a base sum of $20,760 for the program. In addition, each district pays pro-rated share of cost of each student in the program. For instance, if it costs $280 per year to educate one hard-of-hearing student, each district is assessed $280 per year for each student from the district enrolled in hard-of-hearing classes.

Average cost per handicapped student in the Special Education program is $270 per year. This compares with the $240 cost per year for the normal student.

Organization of the Special Education District of Lake County was the result of initial spadework in the La Grange (Ill.) area, resulting in legislation which allowed for joint agreements in one or between several school districts to provide special education programs for handicapped children.

This system is considered ideal from the standpoints of economy, centralized instruction and maximum use of instructors, many of whom travel from classroom to classroom.

Other systems may involve (1) an isolated class in which a school district can establish a class for any one phase of exceptional children, such as the speech correction program in Antioch schools under John Jessup prior to formation of the Special Education District, or a room for the Educable Mentally Handicapped in Barrington.

(2) A system of special education may be formed in cities with a population base large enough to justify a special department of five special classrooms served by eight instructors.

Exceptional children to be enrolled in special education classes are admitted through referrals by school principals and by school personnel who feel the student can benefit by special class placement. The referral form is reviewed by the principal before submission to the Special Education District.

A conference is then held between the child, his parents, all professional school personnel who work with the child being studied, the district's psychologist and the director. Eligible pupils for either special class placement or special service are then placed, following a psychological report and a conference between director and parents. The psychological report is confidential.

Directed by L. D. Vuillemot with headquarters at Highland School, Libertyville, the Special Education District is a well-knit organization of educators and school board members.

The district organization consists of a board of directors composed of one administration officer from each participating district. These members in turn elect an executive board of seven members. The executive board in turn is the policy-making group with the responsibilities of selecting a director and administrative district, determining expenditures and evaluating the effectiveness of the program.

But, as often is the case, it is the director and staff who, within the bounds of policy and facility, handle the tasks at hand.

In getting the district in working order, among Director Vuillemot's first tasks was recruiting a qualified staff of instructors, not an easy chore in this little publicized and new field of education.

Then came establishment of a complete program, set-up in cooperation with the staff, coordination of activities of specialists, counseling of parents of handicapped children, study and survey of handicapped children in the district, survey and location of classrooms, provision for diagnostic studies and the myriad of details involved in establishing this pioneering program.

How well the program is succeeding in its eight months of existence can be determined in pupil progress which will be reported in future articles on these pages.

With The News, readers will follow exceptional students through a typical day in:

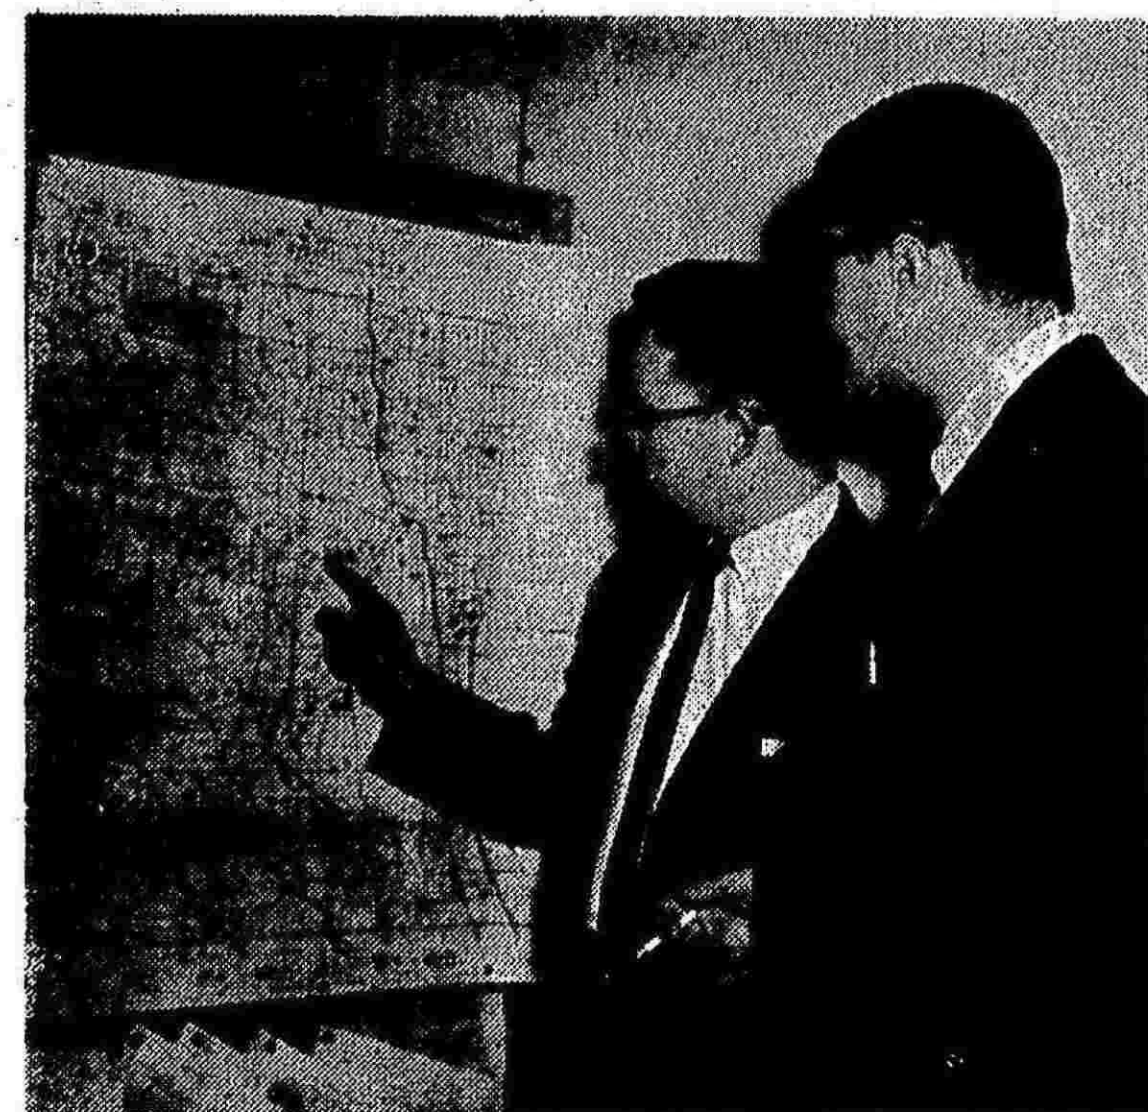

(1) A class for the hard of hearing; (2) a class for trainable mentally handicapped; (3) the multiply handicapped; (4) the partially seeing; (5) the physically handicapped; and (6) speech correction.

You'll meet the staff and learn of their enthusiasm and dedication in bringing the exceptional child along the path to where he can join other children in their pursuit of normal activities. You'll become acquainted with one "bright as a dollar" youngster who, before her enrollment short months ago, had conversed at home only through pantomime and gestures. She now uses partial hearing and is uncovering a wonderful world of words. You'll read, too, about a group of youngsters, ranging from 6 to 12 years of age, who now assist in preparing their own lunch at school, although but a short time ago they were hard put to dress themselves.

The Special Education District of Lake County is a milestone in the education of handicapped youngsters. Follow its progress in subsequent issues of the Antioch News.

THROUGH THE MEDIUM of hard-of-hearing classes, a "wonderful world of words" is unfolding for these pupils, some of whom had never heard clearly a sound since birth. Under guidance of special teachers, such handicapped youngsters receive special instruction. Here, a hard-of-hearing youngster uses special amplification equipment for instructor, Mrs. Ruth Koch, in classroom at Woodland School. Five youngsters are currently enrolled in the special class. Cost of special education for these and other exceptional children averages less than $30 more per pupil per year than for normal students.

DIRECTOR L. D. VUILLEMOT (pointing) discusses classroom locations in the Special Education District of Lake County with John Jessup, Antioch, who heads up the speech correction program. The district, in operation since last September, is a pioneering effort in supervised public instruction of exceptional children and is making remarkable strides in training and educating handicapped children. Headquarters for the district are at Highland School, Libertyville.

Plan New Conference For Area Colleges

Six Chicago-area colleges have agreed to join in a yet unnamed conference, which will begin with the 1961-1962 basketball season. It was announced by Bernard Weissman, athletic director of Illinois Institute of Technology.

The schools to play in the new alliance next season are Illinois Institute of Technology, Loras, Lewis, St. Ambrose, University of Illinois-Chicago, and Chicago Teachers College.

Schools expressing an interest in becoming members are Elmhurst, Aurora, Wheaton, St. Procopius and Concordia.

Among reasons for forming this association of independent teams are: minimize travel to within 100 mile radius of Chicago and to stimulate increased interest between schools. It was pointed out that it is becoming increasingly difficult for independent schools to "free lance."

RESEAL VALUE

FAMILY-CAR SIZE
FINE-CAR RIDE

Comet is one of the least expensive compacts you can own! These are the facts. Comet costs less when you buy — up to $331* below other compacts. Comet gives you high resale value — up to $548† more than other compacts. That's why it pays to own a Comet. But that's not all. Comet has fine-car features, too.

It's the first family-size compact. Longer wheelbase — up to 7.5" longer than other compacts — means more Comet room, not only in pleasurable comfort-for-six seating but in over 28 cu. ft. of trunk space — up to twice as much as other compacts.

Comet's big-car ride is the comfort difference. Extra length also contributes to Comet's road-leveling ride. The refined new suspension and easier-action springs give Comet a better ride than many standard cars. And you'll find Comet turns, parks and handles almost as easily as a tricycle!

Talk about economy and you're talking Comet. To save on gas, choose either of Comet's two thrifty engines. You change Comet oil only every 4,000 miles, get 10% better tire mileage, save on licenses and insurance. And Comet's super-enamel finish won't cost you a cent for waxing — never needs it!

Both two- and four-door sedans and wagons. Take your pick from sedans or wagons. Comet wagons have up to 30% more cargo space behind the front seat than most other compacts, plus a convenient roll-down rear window.

Lasting quality, even where it doesn't show. Comet is quality, inside and out. Unit-built to keep quiet, stay sturdy and durable. Comet also has rustproofed vital underbody parts, complete soundproofing and an aluminized muffler.

Sea Explorers of Ship 92 today invited all boys interested in boating and seamanship to attend Ship meetings. Boys of 14 and at least freshmen in high school are eligible.

Meetings are held each Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. - 9 p.m., at the home of Richard Niekamp, skipper of the Ship and adult advisor.

Details on Sea Explorer activities may be obtained by contacting Skipper Niekamp, Bristol, Wis., UL 7-3559; William Seemann, first mate and associate advisor, Antioch Township High School; George Badame, Antioch 1216; or Cliff White, Antioch 467-M1.

Crew members of Ship 92 are currently working weekends getting the S.E.S. Challenger shipshape for cruising this summer. To gain funds to outfit the boat, the Ship will hold a roller skating party, March 29, at Twin Lakes Rolling Wheels Rink.

Sea Explorers are in the market for Navy uniforms, blues and whites. Skipper Niekamp revealed that anyone having either complete or partial uniforms can put them to good use by donating them to Ship 92.

Boy Scouts of Troop 91 held a Court of Honor recently at the Legion Home. Award ceremonies opened with presentation of the colors by the Senior Patrol. Awards in firemanship, home repairs, citizenship in the home and stamp collecting were presented to 18 Scouts by Chester Golonka, Troop treasurer.

9th Episode in 'Living Christ' Film to Be Shown by Lake Villa Methodists

LAKE VILLA — The spectacle of Herod's banquet, including the dance of Salome and her demand for John the Baptist's head, is vividly brought to life by a cast of professional actors in "Fate of John the Baptist," a full-color motion picture to be shown Sunday at the Lake Villa Community Methodist Church. The film will be shown at 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., according to the Rev. Gerald B. Robinson, pastor of the sponsoring church.

According to the Rev. Robinson, the film continues the technical and professional standards which are giving the Living Christ Series a new and important place in Christian teaching. Sunday's film will be the ninth episode in the 12-feature series being sponsored by the church.

The first release was Jan. 8, and the series will continue through March 26.

Chalmers Wooley, member of the Millburn Congregational Church, will elaborate on the cultural background of the times depicted in the film.

"Our purpose of these weekly showings is instruction," the Rev. Robinson said, "but the very nature of the story makes every film in the series among the most entertaining motion pictures you ever watched."

He added that the cast has more than 200 speaking parts and is considered to be the most authentic filming of the times of Christ ever made.

The public is invited to all showings, he said.

Benefit Bake Sale High on Agenda Of Crooked Lake Oaks Residents

By Bernardine Long

CROOKED LAKE OAKS — The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary was held at the home of Collette Riegler, Birch St., Feb. 16, with Eileen Stann as co-hostess.

A motion was made and it was decided to look into fixing the old pier and if this is not possible to purchase a new one for the beach. We hope to have the pier and beach in good condition by the beginning of summer. Definite plans were made for the rummage sale on March 10-11 and for the bake sale on March 11 to be held at the Lake Villa Grade School for the benefit of the Countryside Hospital Fund.

Plans are being made to have a bake sale on Saturday, March 25, at Lyons-Ryan Ford in Antioch. All the ladies in the Subdivision will be asked to contribute towards the success of the bake sale. Helen Fath won the attendance prize this month, a serving dish.

After the meeting Margaret McNeil gave a demonstration on flower arranging. She spoke of the basic principles and techniques in flower arranging, containers, holders for the flowers and the necessity of balance, harmony and rhythm when arranging flowers.

Ann Spilchak and Cecile Mann attended the meeting of the combined Lake Villa organizations at the home of June Eckert Feb. 20. It was the last meeting to be held before the rummage sale at the Lake Villa Grade School March 10-11. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fox Lake Fire Department and local auxiliary will be in charge of women's clothing. Any woman who would still like to volunteer to help with the selling and sorting of the clothes on these days, please contact Cecile Mann, EL-6-7721 or Bernardine Long.

All men's, women's and children's clothing, books, toys, dinnerware, appliances and even cartoons, bags, and coat hangers can be used. All rummage can be left at Long's Garage on Linden Avenue anytime before Thursday, March 9 or taken directly into Lake Villa on Thursday, March 9, after 3 p.m. All jewelry should be in as soon as possible as it will be cleaned and polished. Large items, such as furniture, etc., will be picked up by truck. All men willing to volunteer their services are needed for Thursday, March 9, after 3 p.m. at the School. Bake sale for this section will be Saturday, March 11. All cakes and other bakery should be taken directly to the Lake Villa Grade School gym after 9 a.m.

Those present for the meeting were Neal Long, president; George Bartels, vice president; Eileen Stann, secretary-treasurer; Joe Flandace, beach commissioner; and Howard Stann, road commissioner.

Mrs. Ray (Elizabeth) Jensen, Lake Ave., was released from St. Lukes' Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago on Feb. 12 after being confined for six weeks for observation. The doctor recommended that she take a long vacation, spend time in the sun. She flew to Miami, accompanied by her daughter, Diane, Sunday, Feb. 19. She was met at the airport by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Eleanor Jensen, Pine St., who is also vacationing in Miami.

Mrs. Howard (Eileen) Stann, Birch St., has returned to work at Abbott's Laboratory in North Chicago after being off from work since May 20 when she suffered a back injury in a car accident. Eileen does inventory control work at Abbott's.

It looks as if night school is the latest thing these days. Christine McNeil, Walnut St., together with Don and Judy (Zelbor) Wertz are taking a course in mosaics at the Adult Evening Classes at the Waukegan Township High School. They will be instructed in the use of mosaic tile to make such projects as wall plaques, murals, tables, and lamps.

Sequoits Split Games in 1961 Cage Finale

Fall Victim To Wildcat Squad 89-57

Antioch High Sequoit eagles ran afoul of a strong Libertyville squad in the opening game of the Barrington Regional Basketball Tournament Monday and emerged on the short end of a lopsided 89-57 count.

Heartened by Friday's 59-54 win over the Grayslake Rams, the Sequoits had hoped to close the current season with a pair of wins, but Libertyville had other ideas.

Boasting a 14-7 mark this season, the Wildcats were in no mood for levity and jumped out to a 22-11 first-quarter lead over the Sequoits. Behind the accuracy of Bill Weber and Jim Hill, who canned 23 and 19 points, respectively, Libertyville opened strong in the second quarter and was virtually matched point for point by Antioch. The Wildcats held a 43-31 edge at the half.

Antioch faded in the third, allowing the Wildcats 21 points while being held to 10, giving Libertyville a 64-41 edge going into the fourth. The Wildcats stretched their lead by canning 25 points to 16 for the Sequoits, to end scoring.

Denny Pogose and Les Herbst were high for Antioch with identical scores, 18 each, gained through six field goals and six charities.

Warren Takes Cage Crown

First to Win 14 Since '46; Grant Second

Warren's Blue Devils kept their conference record unblemished Friday night at Gurnee in defeating Lake Forest 80-68 for their 14th straight win and the conference crown.

In Friday's win Warren tied a record that was established 15 years ago by Ela-Vernon, the last conference team to post 14 conference wins against no defeats. Antioch, with a 12-0 slate in winning the 1952-53 title, was the last Northwest Suburban Conference squad to move through the season undefeated.

Warren again unleashed its staying power Friday in coming from behind with a 27-point third quarter to nail Lake Forest.

Grant Downs Ela
Grant wrapped up its conference season with an impressive 85-64 win over Ela-Vernon's Bears at Ingleside Friday for its 12th conference win of the season against two defeats. Both defeats were at the hands of Warren, Northwest Suburban champs.

The win gave Grant second place in the league, while Ela, with a 9-5 record, garnered third.

The victory was a fine send-off for Coach Ray Collier, who is relinquishing his post as Grant varsity mentor to devote full time to administrative duties at the school.

Denny Haerle, high among league scorers, led the winners with 23 points, with Dave Hodge close behind with 20. Keith Raffel and Dick Howard added 17 and 13, respectively, for high honors for the victors.

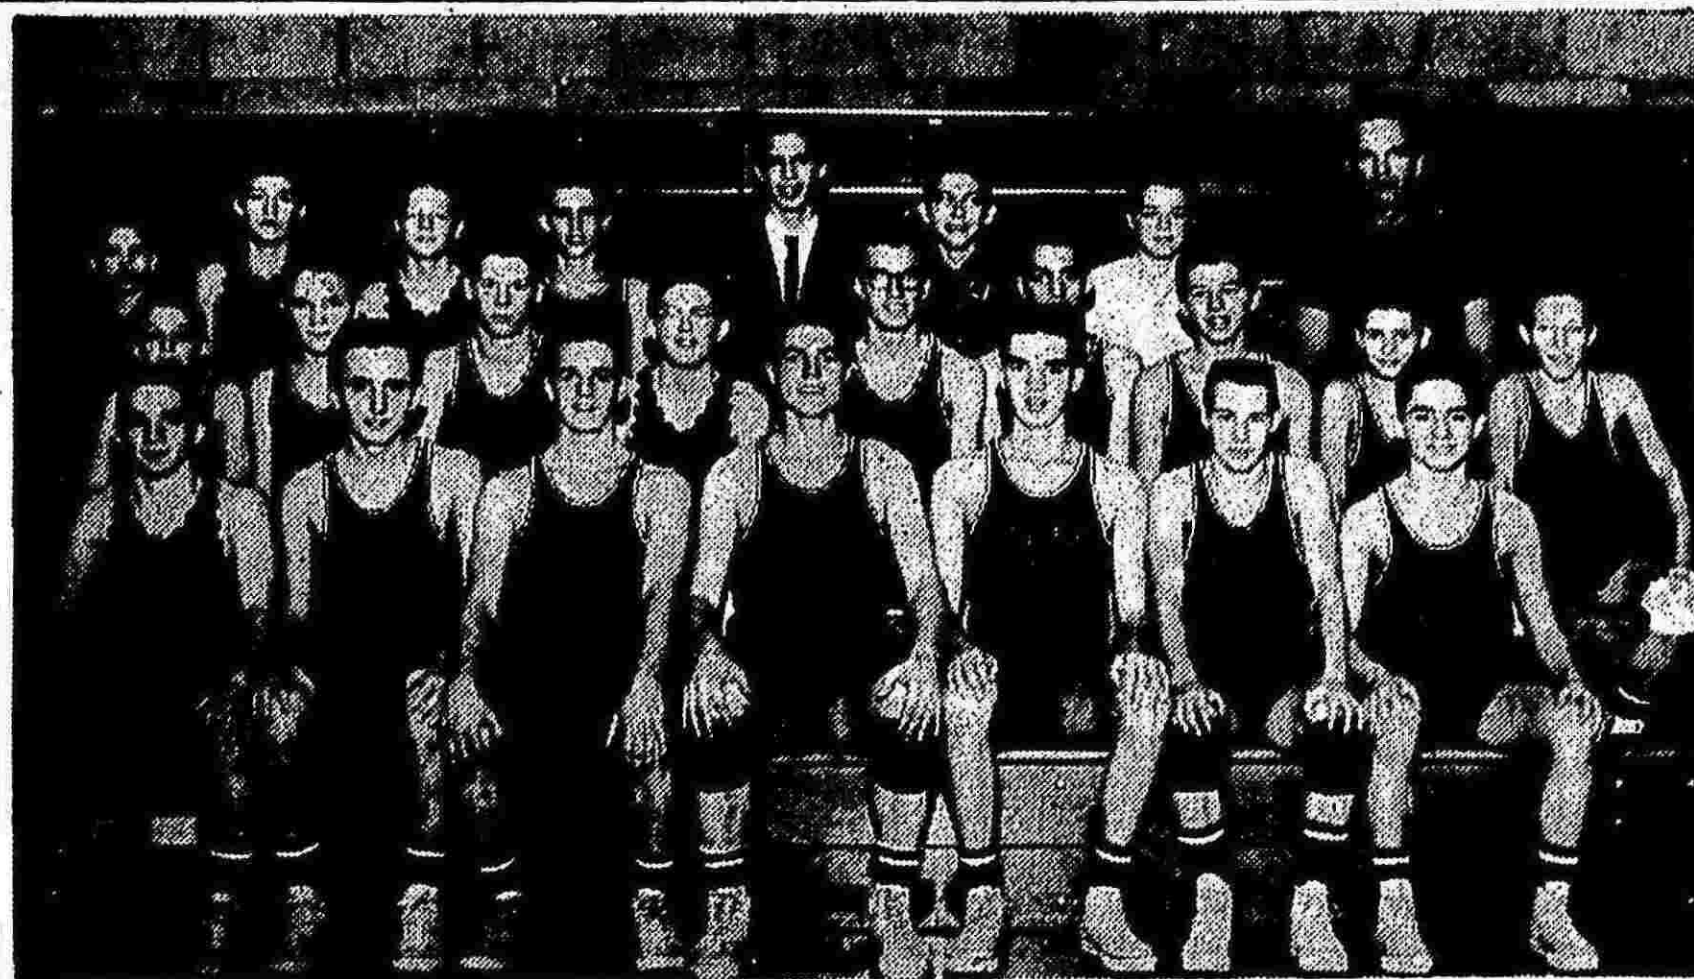

Roy Wright's 14 and Don Mann's 13, paced the losers.

Wauconda Takes EL
Fighting off a last-ditch rally, the Wauconda Bulldogs defeated Round Lake's Panthers 83-59 before an enthusiastic home crowd last week-end.

The victory avenged an earlier loss to Round Lake and snapped a four-game losing streak. Both teams ended the conference season with 5-9 records to share fourth place with Grayslake, who was being dumped 59-54 by the luckless Sequoits of Antioch.

Don Wasillas paced the winners with 18 points and an outstanding all-around floor game. Gary LeLito added 11 for the winners, followed by Gordie Hughes 14, and Jack Cook 10.

Roy Johnson sparked Round Lake with 15, followed by Tom O'Brien with 13 and Sarocco with 12.

Close League Play 59-54 Over Rams

It was a long, dry spell, but the Antioch Sequoits finally made it in closing out a luckless basketball conference schedule with a cheering 59-54 win over Grayslake there Friday.

The victory snapped an 11-game conference losing streak for the Sequoits and ends league play on an optimistic note for Coach Larry Leon, who foresees a much better season next year when several graduates from the high-flying soph squad join returning varsity lettermen.

Battling for a fourth-place spot in league standings, the Grayslake Rams started out early Friday to build a comfortable lead with the count favoring the Rams 15-8 at the quarter and 37-26 at the half.

With Grayslake working well against the zone thrown up by the Sequoits, Coach Leon revamped his strategy and the locals shifted to a man-to-man defense. This marked the turning point of the game.

Turning in a creditable 18-point third quarter while holding the Rams to 9, Antioch managed to end the period but two points down on a 46-44 count, with Les Herbst pacing the scoring drive.

Playing cautiously in opening minutes of the fourth quarter, Antioch finally moved ahead for the first time, 50-48, which rose to 52-48 on points by Bill Ozga. Bob Parker and Denny Williams rammed home three baskets to put the host team out in front again, 54-53, with less than 90 seconds remaining.

Sparkling clutch playing by Brian Elliott and Bill Ozga highlighted final moments of Friday's victory, with Antioch on the high end of a 59-54 decision by virtue of free throws by Elliott and baskets by Brian Palenske and Herbst in waning seconds.

Herbst, mainstay of Antioch's offense during the season, capped scoring honors for the evening with 10 baskets and one free throw for 21 points. Herbst ranks as third high scorer in the league with a total of 243 points in 14 games for a 17-plus point average per game. Beshel of Warren, is the league's high scorer with 304 points, followed by Haerle of Grant with 258.

High scoring for Grayslake was done by Craig Alderton with 17 and Bob Parker 15.

350,000 Expected At Annual Boat Show

"A show for marine dealers and the public alike", is how marine industry spokesmen describe the 28th Chicago National Boat Show to be held March 24-April 2 at McCormick Place on Chicago's lakefront.

Interest in the show is spreading, it was announced, because the opening date is just prior to opening of the boating season. Some 350,000 persons, including 20,000 dealers and representatives, are expected to visit the show during its 10-day run.

Among exhibits at the show will be mechanical displays, casting demonstrations, tackle exhibits and boat and marine product displays.
